Employee “Free Choice Act”

Learn how to prepare for and to combat this “business killer” during a two hour workshop conducted by Peter Hurgten of the Morgan Lewis & Bockius LLP law firm in Los Angeles, CA.

Mr. Hurgten’s practice focuses on representing senior management in labor matters, particularly with respect to complex issues involving collective bargaining and the National Labor Relations Act.

From 2002 until Dec. 31, 2004, he served as the director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) and from 1997 to 2002 as both a member and chair of the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB).

Learn how the “Free Choice Act” will impact you — Be prepared.

Deemed An Undemocratic Power Grab

This workshop is open to all business owners, operators, human resource managers and anyone that could conceivably be impacted by union activity should this legislation known as the Card Check Bill (H.R. 800/S. 1041 be enacted.

The bill is openly supported by President-elect Barack Obama, Sen. Jeff Bingaman (D-NM), Senator-elect Tom Udall (D-NM) and Congressmen-elect Harry Teague and Martin Heinrich.

“This legislation is a blueprint for the most unwarranted change in employee and management relations in more than a half century.”

Senator Mike Enzi (R-WY)

Learn how this unprecedented piece of legislation will impact your operations.

Learn what you can do today to prepare your company and your employees for the onslaught of union activity that will undoubtedly result in union representation at those companies that are not prepared.

While opinions on union issues usually track party lines, even former Democratic Presidential Candidate George McGovern (an innkeeper) opposes the bill. At issue is opposition to this undemocratic power grab which would eliminate the right to a secret ballot and the right to keep private how one chooses to vote relative to union representation.
